

Be a State Fair Adventurer!

The compass symbol indicates that you should look for a sign to help you find your answer.

1. The N.C. Forest Service and Smokey Bear teach visitors about forestry management in North Carolina. How many acres of forestland are in our state? _____

2. It's apple harvest time and the red fruit is a popular item in Pitzer Heritage Circle. North Carolina ranks 8th in the nation in apple production. Which county is North Carolina's top apple producer?

3. The Flower & Garden Show displays colorful mums every year. How many potted garden Chrysanthemums were produced last year in North Carolina? _____.

4. The Village of Yesterday is one of the State Fair's longest-running attractions. What natural resource is the basis of North Carolina's pottery industry? _____.

5. In the Exposition Center you can see a variety of prize-winning produce - both big and small. Record how much the largest watermelon weighs here: _____ pounds.

6. It's Christmas in October in the north lobby of Dorton Arena! North Carolina produces _____ percent of the Christmas trees in the United States.

7. The Field of Dreams exhibit show how crops are produced in North Carolina. Cotton comes from what part of the cotton plant? _____

8. The Got to Be NC exhibit is full of locally grown and locally produced food products on display. North Carolina ranks _____ in sweet potato production.

9. The fair's new Cultivate a Career exhibit shows many different careers that you can have working in agriculture. Name two of them: _____ and _____.

10. If you are near one of the 46 county fairs, you can enter into competitions close to home. The top winning entry at the fair is called the Best in Show, and one adult and one youth is selected from each fair to represent that county. These winners are displayed in the County Fair exhibit in the Commercial and Education Building. Name the Best In Show youth winner: _____