Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

Dear Horse Show Exhibitors,

It won't be long before the Hunt Horse Complex comes alive with the bustle of activity from the annual N.C. State Fair Horse Shows.

We are looking forward to another great year of competition, including the expansion of the Open Show to two days and the addition of a $10,000 U.S. Hunter Jumper Association's National Hunter Derby event. The Open Show will run Oct. 13 and 14. The Hunter Jumper Show will be Oct. 5-9, with the derby as part of that event.

We are proud that the horse shows are part of the rich traditions of the State Fair, drawing horses and riders from around the country to compete in a variety of classes and riding disciplines.

The State Fair's history has always involved agriculture, beginning first as a way for farmers to learn about the newest production techniques and technology, and continuing today as a way to highlight our state's leading industry, which is a $76 billion economic driver. Our state's equine industry is certainly a part of that success.

This year, the State Fair runs Oct. 13-23. I invite equine competitors who are here at that time to check out all that the State Fair has to offer, from deep-fried culinary treats to local music from a variety of genres, to arts and crafts and livestock and agricultural displays.

This marks the second year of our "Homegrown North Carolina" concert series. We hope to build on the success of the inaugural year, with even more uniquely North Carolina musical acts. There are also plenty of free grounds acts to enjoy, heritage crafters to watch create one-of-a-kind items, and special events to attend such as a tobacco stringing competition on Oct. 14 and a mock tobacco auction on Oct. 21.

At the Hunt Horse Complex, North Carolina wineries and craft breweries will return to sample locally made beverages, offering visitors the opportunity to purchase their favorites to take home.

This year we will also be opening our first N.C. State Fair store, The Nest, in the Expo Center lobby. You will be able to purchase official N.C. State Fair merchandise throughout the fair.

As a reminder, we will have fireworks displays from 9:45-10 each night of the fair. Fireworks will be launched from The Wolfpack Club/Carter-Finley Stadium property on Trinity Road, just like the past few years.

I cannot thank you enough for your support of the N.C. State Fair Horse Shows and the equine industry in the state. We are pleased you are joining us, and I look forward to seeing you in October!

Sincerely,

Steven W. Troxler
Commissioner
